Mazzat

On the corner of Sackett and Columbia Streets lies a lovely little restaurant with lo lit booths and a relaxed ambiance. A quiet man known as "Jimmy" says hello as you walk in the door. The food is inspired by rich culinary traditions of Egypt and Lebanon, creating a diverse Mediterranean cuisine. Mazzat can accommodate parties of all sizes, from a romantic date for Mom or hosting the entire family. Their friendly staff will cater to all of your mother's needs.

Caselnova

At this neighborhood trattoria, Dean Caselnova invites your family to dine at his family inspired restaurant. "I grew up in a tradition Italian-American home where our dinner table was the center of our family gatherings. Sharing a meal was more than just eating; it was sharing joy, laughter and love with each other." Caselnova offers all family-inspired recipes and offers a kid friendly menu as well as an Italian inspired gluten free menu. They are people who know how to make your mom feel special. And Dean is sure to shake your hand and remember your name. For more information about Caselnova's mother's day offerings please turn to their ad on page 18.

Casa di Campagna

A charming rustic restaurant presents a roadside restaurant in southern Italy. Casa di Campagna is an enchanting evening out for Mom. With an authentic Italian fare, they will sweep you off your feet with their top class service and lovingly prepared meals. With their generous size portions, there is always plenty to pass around the table. Dine for brunch this Mother's Day in their beautiful outdoor seating area or stop in later in the evening for a bottle of wine and a superb meal.
